If You are agreeing to this Agreement not as an individual but on behalf of Your company, then "Customer" or "You" means Your company, and that You are binding Your company to this Agreement and You represent and warrant that You have all necessary authority to do so.

These TMT's form a part of Our Customer Agreement ("Agreement"). All terms used herein shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the Agreement, unless specifically defined in herein.

These TMT's set forth the terms under which We will provide You with certain work, which does not entail the creation of Custom solutions and is not provided by Us under Our Maintenance and Support Terms of Service. The work shall be described in more detail in a Project Initiation Document referencing these TMT's ("PID" and the work and tasks described therein, "Work"). E-mail requests for minor or simple Work shall constitute a PID. If We chose to do so, We may confirm such e-mail request, or elaborate on its content, by e-mail to You and if You do not object to Our description of the type and scope of Work within 24 hours, that description will form a part of the PID. These TMT's are also subject to Our Documentation as applicable, as well as any specific provisions of the PID.

The Work provided under these TMT's are separate from the Products and Services provided only under the Agreement. We reserve the right to reject requests for Work in Our own discretion and without providing reasoning or justification.

These TMT's do not have to be signed in order to be binding. You indicate your assent to be bound by these terms by submitting a request for Work via e-mail, and/or by signing a PID. Every time You pay an invoice for the Work, you actively re-confirm your continued commitment under these terms. You may also be required to click "I agree" (or a similar prompt or button) when executing a PID. By doing so You are confirming Your agreement to be bound by these terms.

1. WORK AND OUTCOME.

The desired outcome of the Work shall be defined in sufficient detail in the PID (the "Outcome"). During the time frame defined in the PID ("Term") We agree to use diligent efforts to conduct the Work and provide the Outcome by the delivery dates specified in the PID, if any.

You agree to provide Us with reasonable access to Your materials, personnel, equipment, facilities, hardware, software (including without limitation Your instances of Our Products), data and documentation, to the extent such access is necessary or desirable for the performance of the Work (the "Customer Materials").
